ANARCHISTS ONLY HOPE.

THE GROUNDS IN WHICH THEY MAY APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT.

Assistant Attorney General Maury Expresses His Opinion Concerning an Appeal Being Taken in Behalf of the Condemned Men—Workingmen Protest.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Assistant Attorney General Maury, when asked his opinion regarding the appeal of the Chicago Anarchists to the United States supreme court to-day, said it was no uncommon thing for state cases to be taken to the supreme court for writs of error, the grounds for the application being the interpretation of a statute or a question affecting the rights or personal liberty of the subject as granted to him under the constitution. In fact these are the only grounds on which the case can come before the court.

Section 709, revised statutes, in express terms, confers this power upon the court. The question then was, whether any Federal statute needed to be interpreted, or whether the rights of the condemned men had been violated and not fully protected as granted by the constitution, or if the laws of Illinois, under which they had been tried, were in conflict with the constitution.

Concerning these points, Mr. Maury confessed that he could offer no positive opinion, because the newspaper accounts didn't set forth with sufficient clearness the issues on which the appeal would be based. If the writ of error was granted it would be because it was shown that some such points as he had mentioned was reviewable. The general management or conduct of the case couldn't be considered. As an illustration he cited a Virginia appeal, a voluminous chancery case, where the only point involved, as far as the supreme court was concerned, was the interpretation of the word "fraud" in the bankruptcy act.

Mr. Maury was asked if an appeal would be granted because of Spies asserting that the state has placed his life in jeopardy, owing to its having ransacked his private drawers, and there found a copy of the famous "revenge" circular, and which figured so prominently in the trial. Mr. Maury's answer was that the state had a right to use all the evidence it could get, and unless that evidence was procured by unconstitutional means it would not affect the case. Spies might, if he liked, bring an action of trespass or larceny against the detective who purloined the circular, and the court might decide that no trespass or larceny had been committed.

If a supreme court justice grants a writ of error the attorney general of Illinois, representing the defendant in error, will submit a printed brief in support of the judgment of the state court being affirmed. There will probably be no argument before the court. The granting of the writ acts as a stay of execution, and if the Anarchists succeed in getting the writ and the supreme court affirms the validity of the sentence, they will have secured a further lease of life if nothing else.

Workingmen Protest.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—At a joint meeting of the Independent Bakers' union and Baker's Union No. 49 last night, resolutions were adopted condemning the supreme court's decision in the Anarchist case, protesting against violating the constitution and protecting justice; requesting the governor to postpone the execution, and expressing deep contempt for the supreme court judges. Custom Tailors' assembly No. 7,455, Knights of Labor, also adopted resolutions protesting against the legal murder of human beings on account of their opinions, and assuring the condemned men of their support.

At a meeting of Furniture Workers' union No. 1, resolutions condemning the action of the supreme court in the Anarchists' case, were unanimously adopted.

Socialistic Mass Meeting.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 21.—At the Socialistic mass meeting last night speeches were made by Alexander Jones, of New York; Peter Kinckrehn, of Chicago, and Paul Grottkau, of Milwaukee. The two last named were particularly bitter, denouncing the sentence of the Anarchists, and expressing the belief that it would yet be reversed.

At the close of the speaking resolutions were unanimously adopted protesting against the attack upon the rights of American citizens contained in this sentence, and expressing sympathy with the condemned men. Another mass meeting is to be held.

STORM-SWEPT SEAS.

The Newfoundland Fishing Fleet Again Suffers Great Damage.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 21.—A gale from the northeast Saturday night caused great damage at Portugal Cove. Many boats were driven ashore from their moorings, and others were driven against the cliffs and mashed. The stage heads were swept away and fishing-gear destroyed. At Placentia several craft were driven seaward and have not since been heard from. Grave fears are entertained for their safety. The boat fleet is suffering severely.

Bonavista presents a dreadful scene. All sorts of wreckage is strewn indiscriminately about the streets. Twenty boats were driven ashore and seven sunk at their moorings. Not a vestige of the fish stages was left standing. Only two fore-and-afters were insured, and the loss will be heavy. At St. Johns a man named Learning was blown overboard from a wharf and drowned.

Interstate Tournament.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—There is a movement on foot to bring about a billiard tournament, in which six leading players of the country will contest. The stakes will be $250, with gate receipts added. The players are to be Jacob Shaefer, George Sloson, William Sexton, Maurice Daly, Eugene Carter and Thomas J. Gailagher.

Decision Against Prohibition.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 21.—Judge Crozier has given prohibition a black eye in declaring the law authorizing the governor to appoint the police judges officers and men as unconstitutional. Proceedings will be instituted to oust the entire force, as it has become obnoxious in its work against the liquor traffic.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS.

The State Convention Nominate Hon. H.

B. Lovering for Governor.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 21.—The day dawned bright for the Democratic State convention, which is the largest ever held in this city. At 11:30 this morning Chairman Patrick A. Collins, of the state central committee, called the convention to order. Secretary Alger read the call, after which a temporary organization was effected, with P. Collins, chairman, and A. B. Alger, secretary. The committees were then appointed.

Chairman Collins appointed a committee to escort Mr. French, the chairman of the committee on permanent organization, to the platform. He was received with great applause. Mr. French made a brief speech, at the conclusion of which Chairman Morse, of the committee on credentials, made his report.

Senator Rhodes then nominated Hon. H. B. Lovering, of Lynn, for governor, amid great applause.

James H. Mellon, of Worcester, seconded the nomination of Mr. Lovering.

Maj. Alvord nominated Hon. W. E. Russell, of Cambridge. An informal ballot was then taken for governor, as follows: Whole number 1,001; necessary for a choice, 501; Lovering, 628; Russell, 363.

The ballot was then declared formal, and Mr. Lovering was announced as the nominee unanimously. The convention then took a recess.

The platform adopted will endorse President Cleveland and his administration will take the ground of the National platform as to civil service reform, and will call for a judicious reduction of duties, and oppose the repeal of the tobacco and whisky tax.

PLOT AGAINST CUBA.

Discovery of a Cartload of Dynamite, Enough to Blow Up Havana.

KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 21.—A cartload of dynamite, enough to blow up Havana, was discovered hidden in the woods, near this city, yesterday. The discovery has created great excitement, proving that the plot against Cuba is much more formidable than first supposed.

Private advice from Cuba state that Beriben, the filibuster, and his band are safe in the Cuban mountains. In embarking from the boat which carried his party over, Beriben lost a suit of clothes, in the pockets of which were a number of his private letters and other papers. This bundle being found by one Perez, an escaped convict, who was afterward captured and killed by the Spanish soldiers, was found in the fellow's possession. The body of the convict was brought to Mantanzas and palmed off for that of Beriben. The Havana press then published the account of Beriben's capture and death by authority of one of the Spanish misrulers.

Beriben and his command, numbering several hundred men well armed, are in the mountains midway between Mantanzas and Cardenas. They will shortly be joined by other friendly forces. Beriben and his followers are in fine spirits and good health.

Building Trades National Council.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Over 200 delegates representing the principal cities of the East and West, filled the hall of the Mail building this morning when the National Council of the Building Trades of the United States was called to order. This organization was brought into existence last spring, and the present convention is held pursuant to a call of the executive committee, which assembled in this city about six weeks ago. The principal object of the present gathering is to perfect the organization and adopt a new constitution.

Workingmen Protest.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—At a joint meeting of the Independent Bakers' union and Baker's Union No. 49 last night, resolutions were adopted condemning the supreme court's decision in the Anarchist case, protesting against violating the constitution and protecting justice; requesting the governor to postpone the execution, and expressing deep contempt for the supreme court judges. Custom Tailors' assembly No. 7,455, Knights of Labor, also adopted resolutions protesting against the legal murder of human beings on account of their opinions, and assuring the condemned men of their support.

Editor Looking at Fine Scenery.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 21.—The members of the National Editorial association, who are on their tour, reached Pueblo last night, having spent Sunday at Manitou and the Garden of the Gods. They are very enthusiastic over the cordial reception and courtesies extended them by the citizens of Leadville, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and other towns of the state, as well as Rio Grande and Midland Railway companies, along whose lines they claim is the finest scenery in the world.

Their Buses Were Loaded.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Two more big-budget women arrived on a North German steamer yesterday, and were invited into a private room for examination by the female custom house inspectors. In the annex of one was found fifty yards of silk, a gold watch and a gold bracelet. In the rear elevation of her companion was discovered two moneyshauser pipes, one cherry wood pipe, fourteen yards of silk, thirteen yards of velvet and thirteen yards of satin.

Trying to Mob an Umpire.

RED BANK, N. J., Sept. 21.—During a base ball match here yesterday between Red Bank and Freehold clubs the spectators, indignant at the decisions of Thomas Arrowsmith, the umpire, and tried to eject him from the grounds. Arrowsmith's father fearing violence, drew a pistol and threatened to shoot anyone who attempted to harm his son. The crowd quietly dispersed on seeing the pistol and the game was declared off.

Blue and Gray at Evansville.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 21.—The grand reunion of the blue and gray opened auspiciously this morning and if the weather proves favorable this gathering promises to be one of the most memorable military festivals of the year. Twenty-five companies have entered for the grand prize drill, which will form one of the most interesting features of the occasion.

Five Days from Terminal.

FORT BENTON, Mont., Sept. 21.—Nearly 10,000 sheep on route from the western end of the Manitoba track have passed through in the last five days. This is the first shipment by this line to St. Paul. The track is now only twenty-five miles or five days from terminal.

A Manager from Duncan.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The census for 1880, which has just been issued, shows an excess of births over deaths of 52,500 against 85,000 in 1885. The divorces granted in 1880 numbered 2,945 against 4,277 in 1885.

Tragedy of the Nihilists.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—Another great trial of Nihilists is about to commence here.

AN INCREASE OF CHOLERA.

DISHEARTENING NEWS FROM THE INFECTED DISTRICT AT MESSINA.

The Real State of Affairs Being Suppressed by the Authorities—Newspapers Bribed Into Silence—Comments on Our Centennial—Other Foreign News.

ROME, Sept. 21.—Very unsatisfactory news reaches here from Messina, where the cholera epidemic is declared to be steadily increasing in violence. Nor is the situation rendered better by the refusal of the authorities to allow the real state of affairs to be telegraphed. It is nevertheless known that the epidemic is of the most violent description, deaths frequently ensuing within an hour of the seizure. The mortality is not confined to the poorer classes, many fatal cases having taken place among the well-to-do. Great misery prevails, and the general distress was increased on Friday last by the refusal of the gravediggers to continue their work.

Coercive measures had to be resorted to by the authorities before the men would again take up their spades. But eventually, after half a day's idleness, during which large numbers of bodies remained unburied, the men were induced to resume work. The epidemic has also broken out in the prisons. It is difficult to obtain anything more than an approximation of the daily number of deaths from the epidemic at Messina, but they seem lately to have averaged some twenty or thirty during the twenty-four hours, the seizures being perhaps three or four times as many. In the Naples district there has also been an increase during the past day or two. The latest returns issued show thirty-nine cases and twenty deaths during the preceding twenty-four hours, while at Pozzuoli there have been seven deaths. At Rome also the epidemic shows signs of increasing in violence, the daily average of cases being about forty. Here again there is a determined attempt to disguise the truth.

The newspapers with one exception, which after publishing a daily bulletin for some time was, it is said, bribed into silence, do not even mention the existence of the epidemic, in the hope of reassuring the public.

In consequence of the recent case at the Vatican the pope has suspended all audiences for the present. It is the same

The Weekly Bulletin.

The merchants of Maysville will find the WEEKLY BULLETIN an excellent medium through which to reach the farmers of Mason and adjoining counties.

A party living at Decatur, O., inserted a ten or fifteen dollar advertisement in the WEEKLY BULLETIN last spring. When he called to settle his account a month or so afterwards, he voluntarily stated that the advertisement had brought him business amounting to $1,000 to $1,200.

This is one instance in many. The fall trade will soon be on, and the merchant who wishes to thoroughly advertise his bargains can do so by making use of the columns of the EVENING BULLETIN and the WEEKLY BULLETIN.

The Tariff Cannot Protect.

Says the Patriot, of Harrisburg, Pa.: "If some great physical calamity were to reduce the population of England to five millions of people the wages of labor in that country would suddenly rise to double or treble the present rate. It would not require any change in the revenue laws of that country to bring about such a result. The law of supply and demand would effect it."

"If there could be an immediate increase of twenty millions in the population of Pennsylvania the wages of labor here would suddenly fall below half the present rate, the present or any other high tariff to the contrary notwithstanding. The law of supply and demand would again be inexorable."

"And yet these events would only exchange the natural condition under which labor now finds employment in England and Pennsylvania respectively. It is therefore clear as a sunbeam that tariff laws cannot protect the wages of labor."

THE citizens of Bourbon County will hold a mass meeting next Saturday afternoon to select delegates to the State Industrial and Commercial Conference at Louisville on the 4th of next month.

GOVERNOR GORDON, of Georgia, has honored Bourbon County by placing Colonel R. G. Stoner, of Paris, on his staff, on occasion of the grand military festivities during the coming Atlanta Exposition. Invitations have been extended to the veterans of the Union armies that fought from Chattanooga to Atlanta. It has been accepted by thousands of the old soldiers of the Northwest, and it is probable that more of them will assemble on the line from Chattanooga to Atlanta during October, than have been gathered together for years.

Throw Phisic to the Dogs' when it is the old-fashioned blue mass, blue pill sort, and insist on using Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," a modern medical luxury, being small, sugar-coated granules, containing the active principles of certain roots and herbs, and which will be found to contain as much cathartic power as any of the old-fashioned, larger pills, without the latter's violent, drastic effects. The pellets operate thoroughly but harmlessly, establishing a permanently healthy action of the stomach and bowels, and as an anti-bilious remedy are unequalled.

THE fair at Manchester is the attraction at that place this week.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with phthisis, also diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen, Ohio.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, on Monday morning September 19th, at the residence of her parents, on Front street, Miss Annie Craven, aged 23 years. For nearly a year she had suffered the heavy burden of affliction, but she bore her suffering with true Christian fortitude, faith and patience, even realizing that she was in the hands of Him who doeth all things well. In her brief life Miss Craven was a model, which growing young sought to follow. The portion of filial devotion, however, which she made to her family and her home were her all, her earthly paradise. No labor was too heavy, no task too great for their sakes and often the busy fingers would be at work, self-imposed, when the head was heavy and the eyes dim, so that she might be the means of adding her share to the comfort and prosperity of the happy household. Always quiet and unassuming in her manners, she cared not for society and its allurements. To her gaiety had no charms. Her heart was full of love for God and his industry, never forgetting that there was another comfort than this world, and that living a holy life must win a new world's crown. In these beautiful thoughts and hopes, she passed away, to receive that glorious crown that awaits her beyond the tomb. She was a loving and devoted daughter, an affectionate sister, a kind friend, and a true and devoted Christian, ever true to the holy Catholic faith, which she loved so well, and in which she lived and died. How deeply we regretted our loss of friends, can be fully attested by the large funeral cortège that followed her remains to the tomb. And may the recollections of her pure and useful life afford a useful lesson to her friends and associates, whom she has left in mourning. And may the turf rest gently, and the flowers bloom sweetly over the last resting place of our departed friend, Annie Craven.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Published by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sold on our market for the week just closed amounted to 2,683 hds., with receipts of 914 hds. for the same period. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 97,108. Our market has shown more activity on all grades of burley tobacco during the past week. Some of the large manufacturers are making a desperate effort to buy large lots at private sale, and they are meeting good-natured owners who are willing to sell them strictly on the spot basis.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco:

Mexico's "Garden of Laborde."

One of Cuernavaca's greatest attractions is the "Garden of Laborde," which was laid out by a lucky Frenchman of that name nearly a century and a half ago. In 1743 Laborde came to Mexico, then very poor and very young, but by a series of fortunate mining speculations he soon became immensely wealthy. Once he lost his vast fortune, but regained it in a few years; and at his death gave it all to the church. Here in Cuernavaca he built a "bonne retraite," or pleasure garden, on a more magnificent scale than any that had been attempted since the days of the Aztec and Tezocan monarchs.

This splendid work of nearly 150 years ago is still in tolerable preservation, and visitors are admitted to all its beauties, to remain as long as they please, at the cost of a real (twelve cents) per capita. Adjoining the grounds are a church and a convent, also founded by the pious Laborde, which are now going rapidly to decay. This grim old pile of buildings runs back from one of the principal streets of the town to the brink of the western ravine, and wild tales are told of ghosts in cowls and hempen girdles prowling about this portion of the barranca;

At the angle of the high and massive walls bellevues arise directly above the dark ravine and overlook its winding course, commanding a beautiful prospect of the great sweep of mountain and plain to the south and west. From the center of the garden broad stone ways covered with hard plaster, painted red and white and bordered with stone pillars supporting vases of flowers, lead up to these bellevues. The grandest feature of this garden, with its palms and ferns, its choice exotics and profusion of tropic vegetation, is the central lake, in a stone basin, 500 feet long, dotted with artificial islets, covered with giant magnolias and water plants.

Enough water is stored in this Laborde garden to supply a city. Everywhere it gushes forth in fountains and basins, into reservoirs of hewn stone and adobe, and in a score of little rivers, with miniature cascades and rapids, is guided to the feet of golden fruited oranges and mangoes. What a paradise it must have been in the time of its fortunate young owner, and what a charming retreat for the unctuous parties who subsequently came into its possession! Above the trees tower the dome and battlements of the old church, and shadowy alleys, embowered in grapevines and giant roses, lead up to the convent refectory, where once the good monks mortified the flesh.—Cor. Philadelphia Record.

Suffocated in a Cell.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—A sensational story is in circulation here regarding the suffocation of one of the seamen of her majesty's ship Tourmaline on the voyage from Bermuda here. The captain and officers refuse to speak of the subject, but the men tell the following story: Fitzgerald, after leaving Turk's Island, West Indies, was sentenced to fourteen days' imprisonment for bringing liquor on board the ship. Every morning he was brought up on deck to breathe the fresh air and to be examined by the doctor. The morning of the eighth day of his confinement, which was a Sunday, he was brought up to prayers, and seemed only able to stand with difficulty. He complained to the doctor that he was ill; but was sent back to his cell. When the door was opened Fitzgerald fell out on his face, dead. His nose was broken by the fall. It was supposed that his mouth had been pressed close to the keyhole to receive a breath of fresh air.

The Woolfolk Murders.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—The announcement was made here yesterday that the real murderer of the Woolfolk family had been arrested in Cherokee county and was in jail in Canton. Jack Debose, negro of suspicious looks, was arrested by the sheriff of Cherokee county, and while confined in jail enough to warrant the sheriff in notifying the Atlanta authorities that he was of the opinion the negro was concerned in the Woolfolk tragedy. It is evident that the negro was associated with others in the commission of the murder. His motive was revenge. It is said that he had been convicted upon the testimony of some of the Woolfolks of stealing and sent to the chain gang. It was to avenge himself for this that he murdered the whole family. It is probable that Tom Woolfolk, who is under arrest accused of the murder, will be released at once.

Will Vote on Local Option.

CLEYES, O., Sept. 21.—The council last night by a vote of 4 to 2, authorized Mayor W. B. Welsh to call an election to determine the question of local option in this village. The wiseacres say that local option will carry by a good majority. One of the six saloons has closed, and it is rumored that at least three more saloons will be located in North Bend, our sister town, should the electors of Cleves vote "no saloons." The contest will be exciting as both sides are confident and working hard.

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 21.—The tenth biennial convention of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, composed of the chapters of societies of various southern colleges, will be held in this city on the 21st, 22d, and 23d of this month. A large attendance is expected.

Welcome to Our Shores.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The steamers Champagne, Alaska and Geninian brought a total of $1,344,000 gold to this port.

Died From a Bursting Blood Vessel.

ATHENS, O., Sept. 21.—Mrs. James D. Brown, wife of the president of the bank of Athens, died suddenly this morning from the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain.

Three Stores Burned.

GOSHEN, Ind., Sept. 21.—This morning three store buildings owned by John Waner, of this city, burned to the ground. The loss was $2,000; fully insured.

A Barren Explanation.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—A letter received yesterday afternoon from Mr. A. M. Wright, president of the Chicago board of trade, was very severely criticized by the members of the produce exchange in this city. The substance is that after the action taken by the brokers (that of burning him in effigy) he did not consider it necessary to make an explanation. He denies that he used the word "bucket-shop," and says that the interview was strictly private, and not for publication.

The report of the Wesleyan College Commission was submitted, recommending the removal of that college from its present location at Millersburg to Winchester, Ky. THE LABOR BUREAU WORK

SOME INTERESTING WORK BEING MAPPED OUT IN WASHINGTON.

A General Inquiry as to the Condition of Railroad Employees to be Made Soon—A History of Every Strike That Has Ever Taken Place in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The labor bureau has some interesting work now in hand and mapped out. In about a month it will commence a general inquiry as to the condition of railroad employees. This will embrace statistics in regard to their work and surroundings, their earnings, the number of hours they labor, what constitutes the "run" of a fireman, engineer, conductor and brakeman, the percentage of casualties to the number of men employed, the benefit derived from the insurance and relief associations that have been started by some of the roads, and much other information of a valuable character.

This fall the bureau will investigate the cost of production of some of the leading staples, cotton, sugar, flour, meat, perhaps coal and iron, and the cost of distribution. By a series of analytical tables will be shown the cost of the raw staple, what must be added to turn it into the manufactured article, the expense for transportation, the profits and other charges incurred by the middlemen, and finally the cost of this same article to the consumer.

In about six weeks the bureau will have ready a history of every strike that has taken place in the United States between January, 1881, and December, 1882. About forty different points are covered in this investigation. The leading features are the duration of every strike, the number of men affected by it, the loss in wages and the loss to the employers.

Congress at its last session made an appropriation for the collection of divorces and other collateral statistics. The bureau now has in the field about thirty agents collecting these debts. The inquiry embraces the number of divorces granted from 1867 to 1882, the number of marriages, the children of each union, the cause for which the divorce was granted, and whether absolute or limited, the length of time the couple were married and other facts. It will also have a synopsis of the divorce law of each state and territory, with possibly some comment on the same.

The figures will be given by states and territories, counties and court districts, and will be the most complete history of marital infidelity ever published. It is principally owing to the efforts of the New England divorce league, of which Rev. Samuel Dike, of Boston, is president, that congress was induced to undertake this work, which will be of the greatest interest and value to students of social science.

Bricklayers' Picnic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The bricklayers' annual holiday was celebrated yesterday by a picnic at the Schussezen park. The Bricklayers' Protective and Beneficial Union, No. 1, of Maryland, 400 strong, left Baltimore in the morning on an excursion to this city. The hodcarriers of Baltimore, having nothing to do, also came over and celebrated with the Washington hodcarriers at Brown's park. The procession was formed in front of Edel's garden on E street, which will be the headquarters, and the line of march was up the avenue. The Washington bricklayers who escorted the Baltimore visitors were headed by the Marine band, and the Baltimoreans had the Dickson band and two drum corps. The hodcarriers contested for a prize of $60 for fast loading-up.

California's Quota En Route.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—San Francisco sent eastward, last night, her quota of comrades for the Grand Army encampment at St. Louis. Pullman sleeping cars, attached to the special train, will go through without change to St. Louis. They will be transferred from the Southern Pacific to the Atlantic & Pacific train at Mojave, in Southern California. They will remain for a short time at Las Vegas, Topeka and Kansas City and other points, where entertainments for the occupants have been provided. It is said that besides these a number of receptions will be given en route. The excursionists will arrive in St. Louis on Sunday, September 25.

Gale on the Gulf.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—Easterly winds which have prevailed for several days, and increased last night to a gale, have forced the waters on the gulf against the embankment all along the Louisville & Nashville road, between Lookout Station and Michæland, and several washouts have occurred, delaying traffic. Mail and passengers are transferred by steamer from Rigolets to Millenburg. The gale has increased somewhat since noon, and it is accompanied by a steady rainfall. No other damage is reported so far, other than the prostration of the Blaize telegraph line, cutting off telegraphic communication with Port Eads.

Another Collapse.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—Judge Kumler today appointed Theodore F. Nieman, the tailor, receiver for the Granger Carriage manufacturing company, doing business at 98 East Eighth street, and fixed his bond at $15,000. C. H. Albrecht, Theodore Anderson and H. T. Morton were appointed appraisers of the company's property. The assets are $5,350.07 in accounts, a $75 note and $4,000 stock and merchandise, making a total of $9,834.07. The liabilities are $13,000. There have been disagreements among the stockholders, and the credit of the concern was thereby injured.

Soldier Reunions.
